Stock Market Review: During the month of December 2015, KSE-100 index increased by 1.74%, on the back of positive macroeconomic indicators. Lackluster in local market was mainly attributed to Awful terrorist attacks in Paris and devaluation of Chinese yuan with effect to lower data released by china, rumors about hike in US interest rate and decline of organized significant markets in CY15. On positive side GDP growth is likely to touch 4.5% helped by lower input cost due to dull Oil prices, Fiscal deficit is expected to come in at 5.5%, inflation hit a multiyear low primarily due to collapsing commodity prices and Infrastructure development under Pak-China corridor also boosting the investor confidence.

Automobiles Assemblers, Cement, Engineering, Fertilizer, Pharmaceuticals, Power Generation & Distribution sectors outperformed the market while Oil & Gas Exploration, Banking, Paper & Board, and Textile Composite sectors lagged the market.

Foreign investors remained net seller with the outflow of US$34.320 million during the month under review as compared to US$53.075 million in previous month.
