Stock Market Review: During the month of March 2016, KSE-100 index increased by 5.64%, on the back of expected reclassification of MSCI Pakistan Index from 'Frontier Markets' to 'Emerging Markets', paving way for re-rating at the local bourse. Recent upsurge in the global financial markets also lent support to all-round gains and garnered investor interest.

Cement, Oil & Gas Exploration Companies and Pharmaceutical sectors outperformed the market while Commercial Banks, Chemicals, Fertilizer, and Textile Composite lagged the market. Cement sector still remained market leader due to growth in local dispatches and reduction in power tariff. Oil & Gas Exploration sector outperformed due to rebound in oil prices in international market and Pharmaceutical sector outperformed the market due to upsurge in medicine prices domestically.

Foreign investors remained net seller with the outflow of US$11.27 million during the month under review as compared to US$39.53 million in previous month.
