Stock Market Review: During the month of October 2016 KSE-100 posted a decline of 1.6%, mainly attributed to the increasing pressure in domestic politics due to sit-in and protest call in the federal capital by Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI). International markets also remained under pressure due to increasing anti-trade and anti-globalization political rhetoric in US political campaign, rising odds of interest rate hike by the Fed, and of late renewed decline in global oil prices amid disagreements on production cut by the key producers.

During the month, Commercial Banks, Glass & Ceramics, Textile Composite, Chemicals, and Oil & Gas Marketing sectors outperformed the market, while on the flipside Automobile Assemblers, Oil & Gas Exploration, Power Generation & Distribution, Pharmaceuticals, and Fertilizer sectors lagged the market. Foreign investors remained net buyer with the inflow of US$2.02 million during the month under review as compared to outflow of US$41.34 million in previous month.
